Class Will

Knowing that it won't be long now until we approach our end, and too realizing the fact that we must leave to our friends and comrades our most treasured possessions, we, the Class of '42 do hereby will and bequeath the following to them:

To our teachers, we hereby will and bequeath our appreciation for all they have done for us; we also extend our sincere sympathy to them for the wrinkles we have left on their faces and sadness at knowing our loss is unbearable.

To the school, we wish to leave our good disposition and kind hearts.

I Bruce Bryant, do hereby will and bequeath my office as President of the Senior Class to anyone who is as capable of the job next year.

I, Lois Clarke, do hereby will and bequeath my neatness to Jean Taylor Norton.

I, Barbara Hurst, do hereby will and bequeath my sweet disposition to Myra Slagle.

I, Lucille Calloway, do hereby will and bequeath my nickname "Pete" to Lucille Vinson.

I, Hunter Anderson, do hereby will and bequeath my stubbornness to Charles Fulton.

I, Donald Foster, do hereby will and bequeath my red hair to Sol Sanders.

I, George Hunnicutt, do hereby will and bequeath my chicken farm to Clell Bryant.

I, Jimmie Higdon, do hereby will and bequeath my mischievous ways to Kenneth Welch.

I, James L. Huggins, do hereby will and bequeath 2 feet of my height to Vic Perry.

I, Delma Edwards, do hereby will and bequeath my office as Secretary of the Senior Class to anyone wanting a job.

We, Tearl Ashe, George Moore, Bobby Carpenter, and J.C. Cunningham, do hereby will and bequeath our athletic fame to all the Junior Boys of Franklin High School.

I, Alex Keener, do hereby will and bequeath 2 inches of my height to James Furr.

We, Clifton Crawford and V.L. Holland, do hereby will and bequeath our studious ways to Fred Houk and Crawford Ledford.

We, Bernice Cabe and Roberta McDowell, do hereby will and bequeath our love for the navy to Lorene Nichols and Lotis Bradley.

I, Kenneth Conley, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to recite poetry to Logan Allen.

I, Janelle Greene, do hereby will and bequeath my popularity to Mary Constance.

I, Christine Huggins, do hereby will and bequeath my love for the army to Betty Jane Waldroop.

Class History

LIKE ALL OTHER CLASSES, THE CLASS OF '41 HAS MADE HISTORY. It may not be known the world over, but it is history just the same. The history of the class can be divided into four periods.

In the first period we entered high school determined to win an education and fit ourselves for the future. Because we had to adjust ourselves to new teachers and new conditions, the year was very trying to us. A large number of us left school but the ones who finished this period were stronger in mind and heart, and more determined than ever to finish school.

During the next period, we began to take more interest in school and to make ourselves known. We gave a large party in the school auditorium. Then we passed on to the third period.

High-light of the affairs of the third period was the Junior-Senior Banquet. To make this activity an enjoyable one for the Seniors, we worked hard all year. To raise money for this aim we gave two carnivals and sold magazine subscriptions. But all the while we were looking forward and dreaming of the time when we would be seniors.

Another summer rolled by and our dream came true. We were Seniors! Yet this period for which we had yearned was not easy. Most of us had to study hard in order to graduate and at times it seemed as though we could never reach our goal, but reach it we did.

Classmates! Let's not forget FHS and all that she has meant to us!

Juniors

JUNIOR ACTIVITIES

TRADITIONALLY, the Juniors of Franklin High this year have been very, very jolly. Their jollity and cheerfulness have been in evidence at school, in class and out, and so sincere it is that it will be effected in chasing murky clouds away throughout their drives.

These one hundred and nineteen rays of sunshine have had more than ample opportunity to shoulder and dispense their varied responsibilities and they have preformed these with skill and dispatch.

The Hallowe'en Carnival was an unparalleled success--everyone had a wonderful time and the gate receipts reached the highest mark in the history of the school. Another record, that of magazine sales, was broken by the untiring labor and perseverance of the group.

Entertaining the Seniors with an informal banquet, was the breaking of a precedent of stricter economy in view of the nations' drama was the only possible course.

Class Prophecy

It is the year 1960. There has been a great political upheaval during the past twenty years. The United States and her allies were victorious in the war which led to the downfall of all forces opposed to democracy. It is believed that the world is on the verge of being Utopian.

I am just returning home for the first time since I was assigned to my post as governor of one of the new states in the World Confederation. My plane glides smoothly to the runway, of the large airport at Franklin, the city now famous for its unique location. It is the only city in the world surrounded by water that is not on an island. This was brought about by the construction of the numerous dams. As I step from my plane I am met by one of my old friends. She takes me to dine at one of the state's most exclusive clubs, which, strange to say, still retains the name of Panorama Courts.

As we take our seats we are approached by a man whom I recognize as a former classmate, Wayne Pendergrass. He informs me that he is now proprietor of this club. This recalls old times and I begin to inquire of my friend about the various associations of my schooldays. She tells me the following story:

"There are quite a few things outstanding about Franklin. One is the fact that North Carolina's largest family lives here. The head of the house is Bobby Carpenter and his wife is the former Delma Edwards.

The city is famous as the home of the Arctic explorer, Mericus McCoy. His exploration resulted in a dense settlement of the frigid regions because his magnetic charm started a general migration of feminine admirers to the North Pole.

Too, it was the birth place of the famous motion picture stars, George Gray and Leotta Anderson. Their latest picture is "The Life of James Higdon, Thomas Edison II".

Many of our classmates are now taking part in the city affairs. The mayor is now Donald Foster. He attained this office through his charming personality and the money put up by the "Aluminum King", Alex Keener. Janelle Green, with romantic motives, is the mayor's private secretary.

From this part of the state Sam Gibson is representative to North Carolina's legislature. The chief of police is Clifton Crawford (now married to Edith Brown) and serving on the police force are Tearl Ashe, Ural McConnell, and V.L. Holland.

The principal of Franklin's largest school is Kenneth Conley. On the staff are: Emogene Landrum, history teacher (she emphasizes dates so much her students say 1-4-9-2 instead of 1-2-3-4.); Christine Huggins, English teacher (she tells how much better students behaved when she went to school.); Elsie Brendell, chemistry teacher (buildings are in constant danger of being blown up.); and Dewell Elliot, French teacher (she is noted for translation of French poetry.)

In the area not flooded by dams, farms are cultivated by Hunter Anderson, specializing in raising stock; James L. Huggins, (attempted to farm successfully but because of his dreamy nature his wife, the former Merl Kinsland, is forced to support the family;); and George Hunnicutt, chicken farmer (he lives all alone with his chickens because he could not decide which girl he wanted.)

Mildred Reid, the outstanding woman chiropodist of the decade, has established a hospital which is famous the world over. Located there is Max Parrish, the plastic surgeon who performed an operation on Edgar Welch. Since this operation Edgar has been known for his great profile. J.C. Cunningham is at the hospital under the care of Doctor Reid. He is recuperating from a disease resulting from dancing too much. Nurses at the hospital are; Delma Cunningham, Superintendent; Mildred Shope; Doris Kimsey; Margaret Sanders; and Carrie Stiles. Mr. and Mrs. (Ruby Teems) J.D. Crisp are employed there as janitor and cook.

A few of the old business establishments are still maintained. Like wise many are new. Bruce Bryant is owner of the large hardware company, Ma-County Supply Company. William Cansler and Clayton Ramsey have established a wholesale house under the name of Cansler, Ramsey & Sons.

Mildred Angel has a sewing room. Working there are Edith Sellers, Evelyn Norton, Catherine Norton, and Bernice Vinson.

Barbara Hurst is the County Home Demonstration Agent.

Carl Mason is the pastor of the First Baptist Church and his wife, Anna Lou Sanders, is active in missionaty work."

"What have become of the others who are not in Franklin now," I asked.

"Lucille Calleyway is leading the Woman's Symphonio Orchestra in Philadelphia.

Helen Edwards has an exclusive beauty salon in New York. Under her supervision are: Elura Belle Sanders, Clara Sue Pannell, Lucille Reece, Frances Mashburn, and Betty Synder.

George Moore is head of the Atlantic Fleet and Robert Parker of the Pacific Fleet. They are continually bickering over which is stronger.

Marion Carr is now starring on Broadway in Shakespeare's Julius Ceasar and every night as an encoore she sings Lousiana Lullaby. On Broadway also is a musical comedy starring as chorus girls Bernice Cabe, Roberta McDowell, Kate Sanders, Helen Dills and Hazel Carpenter.

Jessie Barnard is private secretary to the President of the United States. Byrda Nell Southard is a buyer for an exclusive dress shop in New York. Margaret Guest and Mary Raby are athletic instructors at Greensboro College. Out of town secretaries are: Nancy Waldroop, Frances Dowdle, and Irene Guffey. Lois Clark and Geraldine Wells are competing as beauty queen of North Carolina.

And Gladys Stiles is traveling over Western North Carolina collecting ballads and putting them into book forms."

Our conversation is interrupted by two waitresses, Anna Lois Shields and Marie Cloer, bringing us our lunch. After this interruption we turn to the affairs of the day and our own lives.

FRESHMAN ACTIVITIES

This year the awkward students who were to compose the Freshmen Class entered dear old F H S. But in all fairness it must be said that these entering students were not too different from those who had preceeded them.

As among the other classes many were the romances that developed through the first part of the year. The Carolyns were quick to find sweet beau friends- any man, that is. Excitement ran high when during the middle of the term, the class gained an addition with the entrance of Ann Flannagan into this high school.

This Freshmen Class of this year also has its share of the higher intellectual levels which is personified in Leroy Roper- an A average student. Also there are a good many honor roll students in proportion to the class as a whole.

Here's hoping that they may continue as they are through to Seniors!

The reader may see at a glance that one of our pictures has only boys in it. We may account for it by the fact that the class also has its crop of woman-haters. And also its crop of man-haters.

One of the most conspicuous members of the class is Jack Nichols, who this year has already been able to incur Mrs. Stewart's wrath. Woe unto him!

One of the most promising of the female attractions of the class is Mildred Beecoe who this year managed to attract various members of the Junior Class.

The class also has its shy creatures. Among these are Ela Moss, Grace Yonce, and Steve Mc Connell.

Their opposites are Faye Dills, Ruth Edwards, and James Stockton.

-history-

The Journalism Club of FHS was founded in the school year of 1938- 39 for the purpose of publishing a high school newspaper. The first Editor of this new paper entitled "The Mountain Echo" was George Patton, both able and capable and the faculty adviser and sponsor was Mrs. Shufford.

The next year the paper continued with success under the able co-editors, Kenneth Bryant and Lewis Patton. The paper was sponsored that year by a new teacher at FHS, Miss Gloria Reagan.

In 1940- 41, the paper continued under the editorship of Kenneth Bryant who was supplanted in the latter part of the year. This term the club had as sponsor Miss Reagan who had continued on at FHS.

This year the paper entered its fourth year of publication with Sol Sanders, Editor and Mary Frances Page as Associate Editor. The club's activities were under the direction of a new sponsor, Miss Jewel Vandiver. The club and many of the students were expressing the hope at the end of the term that it would be possible to publish the paper despite the war and other handicaps .

The Franklin Chapter of The Future Farmers of America has sixty members.
The pupose of this organization is:
to develop leadership; to encourage recreational activities for students in agriculture; and to encourage cooperative effort among the students.

The motto of The Future Farmers of America is:

LEARNING TO DO, DOING TO LEARN, EARNING TO LIVE, AND LIVING TO SERVE !

They learn to do by doing and their work around F H S seems to be sucessful.
